Further Events

In 2024 we continue both our virtual and in-person events. Highlights include our annual St David's Day celebrations, featuring a special event in the Cheng Kar Shun Digital Hub with Professor David Willis, the All Alumni Dinner, the Commemoration of Benefactors and the 1571 Society Legacy Luncheon. The Jesus College Shakespeare Project will continue its exploration of tyranny with Titus Andronicus in February and King John in May, and there will also be a special opportunity for our Welsh alumni and students to perform Dylan Thomas's radio play Under Milk Wood in the Cheng Kar Shun Digital Hub as part of our Welsh month of activities in March. There will also be further events in London to be announced in the coming months.
